Thanks Kristine. I'd like to get a bit of clarification on your letter: The LWG interprets comments #8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 from your July 15th letter as directed comments with a August 12th deadline for invoking dispute. In addition, EPA previously agreed to extend the June 29th deadline for comment #16 to August 12th. Are we to interpret from your letter today that only comments 8 and 11 have been superseded by the directed comments in today's letter (which I calculate now have a dispute deadline of August 25th), and that the dispute deadline for comments 9, 10, 12, and 16 is still tomorrow (August 12th)? Or, have all remaining unresolved directed comments been extended to August 25?

Thanks, Jim.
